

Selected Island Populations

In response to inquiries for selected island populations, OFM has grouped Federal Census 1990 and 2000 census blocks into island groups. Islands were named based on the United States Geologic Survey's Geographic Names Information System (GNIS) and other sources. In some cases multiple Islands are included in a single census block. When this occurs Island names were separated by a forward slash ' / '. Although OFM made an effort to include all populated islands according to the 2000 Federal census some islands may not be included.
